MVPD units may submit computer-generated lists of job titles which are currently maintained for internal recordkeeping purposes. Every MVPD unit with 6 or more full-time employees must file annually a full FCC 395-M. However, MVPD units with 5 or fewer full-time employees must only file Sections I, II and IX of the FCC 395-M and thereafter need not file again unless its employment increases. In addition, MVPD units with 6 or more full-time employees will file a Supplemental Investigation Sheet once every 5 years. The data is used by FCC staff to monitor a MVPD unit's efforts to afford equal employment opportunity in employment. The data is also used to assess industry trends.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 15, 1996, the Authority granted, in part, an application for review of the Regional Director's Decision and Order in National Association of Government Employees/Service Employees International Union, Local 5000 and Service Employees International Union and U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, No. WA-AC-50071. A copy of the decision may be obtained in the Authority's Case Control Office at the aforementioned address; a copy will be forwarded (by mail or facsimile) to any person who so requests by contacting James H. Adams at the same address. A brief summary of the case follows.

The petition in this case, which was filed jointly by the National Association of Government Employees/Service Employees International Union, Local 5000 (NAGE/SEIU or NAGE) and the
Service Employees International Union (SEIU), seeks an amendment of certification to transfer employees from a bargaining unit for which SEIU is the exclusive representative to a unit for which NAGE is the exclusive representative. The Agency maintained a “neutral position” regarding the petition in proceedings before the RD, and filed no submissions with the Authority.

In 1978, the National Association of Government Employees was certified as the exclusive representative of a nationwide, consolidated bargaining unit composed of certain nonprofessional employees of the Agency. In 1982, the National Association of Government Employees affiliated with SEIU and became NAG/SEIU. SEIU “has jurisdiction over NAGE.” Currently, NAGE represents approximately 10,200 nonprofessional employees in this unit.

Since 1980, SEIU has represented a nationwide, consolidated bargaining unit of other nonprofessional employees of the Agency, including approximately 900 employees at the Agency's Medical Center in San Diego, California, who are represented by SEIU Local 102. There are approximately 9,800 employees in SEIU's consolidated unit. SEIU, Local 102 and the Agency's Medical Center in San Diego are parties to a collective bargaining agreement.

The joint petitioners seek to “sever” the San Diego Medical Center employees from SEIU's consolidated unit and include them in NAGE's consolidated unit. The petition was filed after a “special meeting” was held among SEIU Local 102 members, at which the sole subject was the transfer of affiliation from SEIU to NAGE. All SEIU Local 102 members were invited to the meeting. Following a discussion of the issue of the transfer of affiliation, a total of five members voted unanimously, by secret ballot, to transfer representation from SEIU to NAGE.

The RD dismissed the petition on the ground that the joint petitioners had failed to establish the “unusual circumstances” necessary under Authority case law to justify severance of employees from a bargaining.

The Authority granted review under § 2422.17(c)(1) of the Authority's regulations, 5 CFR 2422.17(c)(1), on the ground that there is an absence of precedent on the following issues:

1. Should the facts that the joint petitioners agree that the San Diego employees should be severed from the SEIU unit and included in the NAGE unit, and/or that the agency does not oppose such agreement, be considered in resolving the petition in this case?

2. If those facts are considered, what principles should be used to determine whether to grant the petition?

(a) As to severance, for example, should SEIU's agreement be accorded the same effect as the disclaimer in Treasury? It is noted, in this regard, that there is no suggestion that SEIU would disclaim interest in representing the San Diego employees if the petition is dismissed.

(b) As to accretion, for example, should the joint petitioners' agreement be considered dispositive in light of the Agency's neutral position? Are there any circumstances that would override the agreement? Are there any circumstances in which an election should be directed?
