

non-institutional use from Indonesia are negligible.

Background

The Commission instituted these investigations effective February 6, 1996, following receipt of a petition filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by the American Melamine Institutional Tableware Association (AMITA).⁶ The final phase of the investigations was scheduled by the Commission following notification of preliminary determinations by the Department of Commerce that imports of melamine institutional dinnerware from China, Indonesia, and Taiwan were being sold at LTFV within the meaning of section 733(b) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1673b(b)). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's investigations and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of September 11, 1996 (61 FR 47957). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on January 9, 1997, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on February 18, 1997. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3016 (February 1997), entitled "Melamine Institutional Dinnerware from China, Indonesia, and Taiwan: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-741, 742, and 743 (Final)."

Issued: February 19, 1997.

Monitoring of U.S. Imports of Tomatoes Monitoring of U.S. Imports of Peppers

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Publication of monitoring reports in 1997.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 18, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Background

Section 316 of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Implementation Act (19 U.S.C. 3381) directs the Commission to monitor imports of fresh or chilled tomatoes (HTS heading 0702.00) and fresh or chilled peppers, other than chili peppers (HTS subheading 0709.60.00), until January 1, 2009, as if a request for such monitoring had been made under section 202(d) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2252(d)), for purposes of expediting an investigation concerning provisional relief under section 202 of the Trade Act of 1974. In response, the Commission instituted Investigation No. 332-350, Monitoring of U.S. Imports of Tomatoes (59 F.R. 1763, January 12, 1994) and Investigation No. 332-351, Monitoring of U.S. Imports of Peppers (59 F.R. 1762, January 12, 1994).

Although section 316 of the NAFTA Implementation Act does not require the Commission to publish reports on the results of its monitoring activities, the Commission has endeavored to do so in those years in which it was not conducting an investigation under other statutory authority with respect to such products. Thus, no monitoring reports were published in 1996 when the Commission conducted Investigation No. TA-201-66, Fresh Tomatoes and Bell Peppers (61 F.R. 13875, March 28, 1996), under section 202(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2252(b)); and antidumping Investigation No. 731-TA 47 (Preliminary), Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico (61 F.R. 15968, April 10, 1996), under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)). The Commission made a negative injury determination in the section 201 investigation on July 2, 1996; the Commission's antidumping investigation was suspended, effective November 1, 1996, following the signing of a suspension agreement.

The Commission will publish monitoring reports, containing data for both 1996 and 1997, in September 1997.

By order of the Commission.
