SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB No.: OMB 0412-0004.

Form No.: AID 11.

Title: Application for Approval of Commodity Eligibility.

Type of Review: Renewal of Information Collection.

Purpose: USAID provides loans and grants to some developing countries in the form of Commodity Import Programs (CIPs). These funds are made available to host countries to be allocated to the public and private sectors for purchasing various commodities from the U.S., or in some cases, from other developing countries. In accordance with section 604(f) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, USAID may finance only those commodities which are determined eligible and suitable in accordance with various statutory requirements and agency policies. Using the Application for Approval of Commodity Eligibility (Form AID 11), the supplier certifies to USAID information about the commodities being supplied, as required in section 604(f), so that USAID may determine eligibility.

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Clean Air Act, the Comprehensive Emergency Response, Compensation and Liability Act, and the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act

Under 28 CFR § 50.7, notice is hereby given that on March 15, 1999, a proposed Consent Decree in United States v. BP Exploration & Oil Inc. Civil Action No. 3:97CV7790, was lodged with the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, Western Division.

In this action, the United States seeks penalties and injunctive relief against BP Exploration & Oil Inc. ("BP") for claims arising in connection with BP's refinery in Toledo, Ohio, under the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq., the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., and the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act, 42 U.S.C. 1101 et seq. Under the Consent Decree, BP will monitor, report on, and undertake corrective actions to remedy process operations that lead to the flaring of refinery gases that are high in hydrogen sulfide. BP also will develop a training program for its Toledo refinery employees designed to assist in minimizing sulfur dioxide emissions from flaring and process operations. Similarly, BP will undertake a study to optimize the performance of its existing sulfur recover unit. BP will pay a civil penalty of $1,400,000 and will spend $350,000 on two Supplemental Environmental Projects. In one project, BP will spend $150,000 to fund an emergency response telephone notification system for Lucas County. In another project, BP will spend $200,000 to fund and upgraded radio and paging system for the Oregon, Ohio, fire department, the fire department that serves BP's Toledo refinery.

The Department of Justice will receive for period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General to the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, and should refer to the United States v. BP Exploration & Oil Inc. D.J. Ref. No 90-5-2-1-1916.

The Consent Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, Four Seagate, Suite 308, Toledo, Ohio, 43604-2624, at the Region 5 Office of the United States

Environmental Protection Agency, 77 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, IL 60604-3590, and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 3rd Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. A copy of the Consent Decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 3rd Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. In requesting a copy, please refer to the above-referenced case and enclose a check in the amount of $39.00 (25 cents per page reproduction cost) payable to the Consent Decree Library.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on February 23, 1999 proposed Consent Decree (the "decree") in United States v. Jason Properties, Ltd. and Jason Properties LLC, Civil Action No. 99 Z 346 was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Colorado.

In this action the United States sought to recover EPA's past costs incurred in connection with a removal action at the RAMP Industries Superfund site (the "Site"). Jason Properties, Ltd. and Jason Properties, LLC (collectively "Jason Properties") owns the so-called "1031 Parcel," one of three parcels comprising the RAMP Industries Superfund Site (the "RAMP Site") located in northwest Denver, Colorado. Jason Properties leased the so called 1031 Parcel to the owner and operator of the main portions of the RAMP Site, RAMP Industries, Inc. The proposed decree is a cash-out of Jason Properties' liability under Section 107(a)(1) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9607(a)(1). Pursuant to an administrative order on consent ("AOC") attached to the proposed decree, Jason Properties will complete any final soils cleanup necessary for the unrestricted use of the 1031 Parcel. Under the terms of the proposed decree, Jason Properties will reimburse the United States the sum of $8,000 and complete of all work required under the AOC attached to the decree.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the consent decree.

Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530, and should refer to United States v. Jason Properties, Ltd. and Jason Properties LLC, D.J. Ref. 90-11-6-79.

The Consent Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 1961 Stout Street, Suite 1200, Denver, CO 80294, at U.S. EPA Region, 999 18th Street, Suite 700, Denver, CO 80202, and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, DC 20005, (202) 624-0892. A copy of the Consent Decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 3rd Floor, Washington, DC 20005. In requesting a copy, please enclose a check in the amount of $26.75 payable to the Consent Decree Library.
