DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

Privacy Act of 1974, System of Records

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of proposed new system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Department of the Treasury gives notice of a proposed IRS system of records, Disclosure Authorizations for U.S. Residency Certification Letters—Treasury/IRS 22.028.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than April 5, 2000. The proposed system of records will be effective April 17, 2000 unless comments are received that result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be sent to the IRS Freedom of Information Reading Room, 1621, at 1111 Constitution Avenue, Washington, DC 20224. Comments will be made available for inspection and copying. An appointment for inspecting the comments can be made by contacting the IRS Reading Room at (202) 622-5164 (this is not a toll-free call).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Beth Ann Leshinski, Chief, International and Domestic Program Support at 215-516-7544.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The IRS is establishing the Disclosure Authorizations for U.S. Residency Certification system of records to maintain the taxpayer's authorization granting the IRS permission to send the U.S. residency certification or rejection letter to their designated third party (generally a financial institution authorized by the taxpayer). Since parts of this system are retrieved by individual identifier, the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, requires a general notice of the existence of this system of records to the public.

This system will incorporate stringent controls to ensure full protection of the taxpayer's rights. The establishment of this system will save time, promote efficiencies within the IRS, and provide greater service to the public since it will reduce the flow of paper between the IRS, the financial community, and the taxpayer.

The IRS will maintain these authorizations to allow them to be used for up to 3 years instead of being discarded each time they are used. This would greatly reduce the number of "specific purpose" authorizations by the taxpayer as they pertain to the residency certification letters. Currently, the authorizations must be received within 60 days of the taxpayer's signature. The taxpayer can designate authorization up to 3 years on the form, but the IRS does not have any means to maintain this information. Since there is no established system of records that enables the IRS to maintain "specific purpose" authorizations, we are restricted in our ability to process the third-party requests without receiving a newly signed authorization yearly.

The proposed IRS system of records, "Disclosure Authorizations for U.S. Residency Certification Letters—Treasury/IRS 22.028," is published in its entirety below.

Dated: February 28, 2000,

Shelia Y. McCann,

Deputy Assistant Secretary, (Administration).
