Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Teaming Agreement for Implementation of the Advanced Gun Systems Program

Notice is hereby given that, on April 17, 2000, pursuant to section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), United Defense, L.P. has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provision limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are United Defense, L.P., Arlington, VA; and General Dynamics Armament Systems, Inc., Burlington, VT which are controlled by UDLP Holding Corporation, Washington, DC; and United Defense Industries, Inc., Washington, DC respectively. The nature of the venture is the development of the Advanced Gun Systems ("AGS") Program. The U.S. Navy currently is developing its next generation class of destroyers, the DD-21. The overall requirement for the DD-21 is to provide the equivalent of land-based artillery gunfire until Marine and Army maneuver forces are established ashore, then assist those forces in fire support. The primary armament for the DD-21 is the AGS which is currently in the concept development and trade studies stage.

The objective of the parties is to form an exclusive team for all phases and stages of the AGS Program, including further system development and production.

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review: Generic clearance of customer service surveys.

The Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The information collection was previously published in the Federal Register on December 18, 2000 at 65 FR 79123, allowing for a 60-day public comment period. No comments were received by the INS on this proposed information collection.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until April 9, 2001.

This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the items contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to the Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, 725—17th Street, NW., Room 10235, Washington, DC 20530; Attention: Lauren Wittenberg, Department of Justice Desk Officer; 202-395-4318.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.
