Title: SPeNSE Substudy on Paperwork Burden.

Abstract: In order to inform the reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) needs information on the causes of reported paperwork burden among special education teachers. This substudy will explore factors associated with paperwork burden through telephone interviews with special education teachers.

Additional Information: During recent hearings for the reauthorization of IDEA, ED heard testimony from administrators and special educators about the tremendous paperwork burden placed on teachers; however, policymakers lack adequate data to adequately characterize this burden, the factors affecting it, and approaches to easing paperwork burden. This substudy will provide ED with the information it needs to inform the upcoming reauthorization of the IDEA and set priorities within the Department for technical assistance and further research.

Frequency: One time.

Affected Public: Individuals or household.
