Amended Countervailing Duty Orders and Suspension of Liquidation

In accordance with section 706(a)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Tariff Act), the Department will direct Customs officers to assess, upon further advice by the Department, countervailing duties for each entry of the stainless steel plate in coils, as described in the "Scope of the Orders" section above, from Belgium, Italy and South Africa in an amount based on the net countervailable subsidy rate for the subject merchandise. These countervailing duties will be assessed on all unliquidated entries of stainless steel plate in coils, other than cold-rolled stainless steel plate in coils, from Belgium, Italy and South Africa entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after September 9, 1998, the date on which the Department published its notices of preliminary determination in the Federal Register (63 FR 47239 (Belgium), 63 FR 47263 (South Africa) and 63 FR 63900 (Italy)).¹

Furthermore, effective the date of publication of this notice, we will instruct the Customs service to require cash deposits on all entries of cold-rolled stainless steel plate in coils, as well as other stainless steel plate in coils subject to these orders, in accordance with the Court's December 12, 2002 opinion in Allegheny Ludlum v. United States.

For unreviewed producers, and for "All Others," the applicable weighted-average margins are those established in the final determinations. For those producers that have been reviewed the applicable weighted-average margins are those established in the investigation or the most recently completed final results of a countervailing duty administrative review, as noted below:

Producer/manufacturer/exporter	Cash Deposit Rate
Belgium:
ALZ, N.V.	1.78% (66 FR 45007).
All Others	2.00%.
Italy:
ThyssenKrupp Acciai Speciali Terni SpA (TKAST)	15.16%.
All Others	15.16%.
South Africa:
Columbus Stainless	3.95%.
All Others	3.95%.

Customs officers must require, at the same time as importers would normally deposit estimated duties on this merchandise, cash deposits equal to the rates presently in effect. This notice constitutes the amended countervailing duty orders with respect to certain stainless steel plate in coils from Belgium, Italy and South Africa. Interested parties may contact the Department's Central Records Unit, room B-099 of the main Commerce building, for copies of an updated list of countervailing duty orders currently in effect.

These amended orders are published in accordance with section 706(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Dated: March 5, 2003.

On June 17, 1992, this agreement became effective between the United States of America and the Russian Federation ("the 1992 Agreement"). Article XI of the 1992 Agreement provides that the Parties will consult with a view toward finding a means of remedying or preventing actual or threatened market disruption, and authorizes the Parties to take action, including the imposition of import restrictions, to achieve this goal.

On July 12, 1999, the United States Department of Commerce and the Ministry of Trade of the Russian Federation, (now the Ministry of Economic Development and Trade of the Russian Federation), concluded the Agreement Concerning Trade in Certain Steel Products From the Russian Federation ("the 1999 Agreement") establishing import limitations on certain Russian steel products. Steel Products From the Russian Federation ("First Addendum"). On February 24, 2003, the Parties agreed, ad referendum, to a proposed Second Addendum to the Agreement Concerning Trade in Certain Steel Products From the Russian Federation ("Second Addendum").

The United States is considering the acceptance of the Second Addendum and consequent modification to Proclamation 7210 in order to modify the terms of the 1999 Agreement with regards to pig iron, certain steel billets, and certain other semifinished steel products from the Russian Federation. This Addendum would modify the export limits, export limit periods and reporting periods of the 1999 Agreement for these three products. Section 125(c) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2135(c)) provides that whenever the United States, acting in pursuance of any of its rights or obligations under any trade agreement entered into pursuant to the Trade Act, modifies any obligation with respect to the trade of any foreign country or instrumentality, the President is authorized to proclaim increased duties or other import restrictions, to the extent, at such times, and for such periods as he deems necessary or appropriate, in order to exercise the rights or fulfill the obligations of the United States. Section 125(f) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2135(f)) requires the President to provide the opportunity for interested parties to present views at a public hearing prior to taking action pursuant to section 125(b), (c), or (d) of the Trade Act (19 U.S.C. 2135 (b), (c), or (d)). Such an opportunity is being provided by the holding of such a hearing on March 26, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., at the United States Department of Commerce. The Department has published a copy of the Second Addendum on its Import Administration Web site (<http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/newitems.htm>).
