Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Pursuant to the Clean Water Act

In accordance with Department Policy, 28 CFR, § 50.7, notice is hereby given that on February 13, 2004, a proposed consent decree in United States v. Kanaway Seafoods, Inc., d/b/a Alaska General Seafoods, Docket No. A04-0039 CV (JWS), was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Alaska. In this action brought pursuant to section 309 of the Clean Water Act, as amended, 33 U.S.C. 1319, the United States has requested the imposition of civil penalties and injunctive relief on the defendant. This action arose out of the operation by Kanaway Seafoods, Inc., d/b/a Alaska General Seafoods (AGS) of its seafood processing facility in Ketchikan, Alaska. The United States has alleged that AGS failed to meet several of the discharge and reporting requirements of its authorization to discharge under the general National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit for seafood processors in Alaska (General Permit) on numerous days between January of 1999 and August of 2001, all in violation of section 301 of the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. 1311.

The Consent Decree requires that AGS pay a civil penalty of $110,000 and perform certain injunctive relief at its Ketchikan facility. The injunctive relief provisions of the Consent Decree oblige AGS: (1) During the next two processing seasons, to barge its processing waste to an at-sea discharge location or use an alternate, EPA-approved method of disposal to prevent the discharge of its processing waste to Tongass Narrows; (2) to remediate the seafood waste piles that have accumulated on the seafloor as a result of its past discharges; and (3) to use means necessary to prevent eruptions of those piles.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the proposed consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, United States Department of Justice, Environment and Natural Resources Division, Post Office Box, 7611, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20044-7611 and should refer to *United States v.
