DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Office of the Secretary; Notice of Interest Rate on Overdue Debts

Section 30.13 of the Department of Health and Human Services' claims collection regulations (45 CFR part 30) provides that the Secretary shall charge an annual rate of interest as fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury after taking into consideration private consumer rates of interest prevailing on the date that HHS becomes entitled to recovery. The rate generally cannot be lower than the Department of Treasury's current value of funds rate or the applicable rate determined from the "Schedule of Certified Interest Rates with Range of Maturities." This rate may be revised quarterly by the Secretary of the Treasury and shall be published quarterly by the Department of Health and Human Services in the Federal Register.

The Secretary of the Treasury has certified a rate of 11 $\frac{7}{8}$ % for the quarter ended December 31, 2004. This interest rate will remain in effect until such time as the Secretary of the Treasury notifies HHS of any change.

Dated: January 31, 2005.

A Cooperative Agreement To Advance the Practice of Preventive Medicine; Notice of Intent To Fund Single Eligibility Award

A. Purpose

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the intent to fund fiscal year (FY) 2005 funds for a cooperative agreement program to promote the attainment of the objectives outlined in "Healthy People 2010" by strengthening the workforce of health professionals (public health professionals, primary care practitioners, and health professionals specializing in prevention) ensuring that graduates of medical schools and graduate programs in public health receive excellent instruction, educational preparation and practical experience in the areas of disease prevention and health promotion. To move toward attainment of these objectives by (1) Assisting medical schools and public health graduate programs in integrating a preventive medicine curriculum into medical and graduate school curricula; (2) Serving as a resource to professional organizations and academic units in developing programs which deliver up-to-date education in prevention for health professionals; and (3) Assisting member institutions to develop projects on prevention effectiveness to (a) increase years of health life, and (b) eliminate health disparities as set forth in "Healthy People 2010." Every health care provider must understand the basic principles of public health on which the objectives are grounded and must be adequately prepared to provide the clinical preventive services and counseling listed in "Healthy People 2010" objectives.

B. Eligible Applicant

Assistance will be provided only to the Association of Teachers of Preventive Medicine (ATPM). ATPM is the appropriate and only qualified organization to address the activities described under this program announcement.

ATPM is the only association that has an established membership of diverse professionals that includes teachers, practitioners, administrators, and residents in the specialty of preventive medicine, and graduate students from schools of medicine and public health, as well as from public health agencies. For 62 years, ATPM and its members have been in the forefront of advancing, promoting, and supporting health promotion and disease prevention in the education of physicians and other health professionals. ATPM provides an essential connection to individuals and institutions devoted to health promotion and disease prevention education.

C. Funding

Approximately $15,000,000 is available in FY 2005 to fund this award. It is expected that the award will begin on or before September 1, 2005 and will be made for a 12-month budget period within a project period of up to 5 years. Funding estimates may change.

Administration for Children and Families

Notice of Issuance of Final Policy Directive

AGENCY: Administration for Native Americans (ANA), HHS.

SUMMARY: The Administration for Native Americans (ANA) herein describes its issuance of final interpretive rules, general statements of policy and rules of agency procedure or practice relating to the Social and Economic Development Strategies (SEDS), Language Preservation and Maintenance (hereinafter referred to as Native Language), and Environmental Regulatory Enhancement (hereinafter referred to as Environmental) programs.

DATES: January 28, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sheila Cooper, Director of Program Operations at (877) 922-9262.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Pursuant to section 814 of the Native American Programs Act of 1974, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 2991b-1, ANA is required to provide members of the public an opportunity to comment on proposed changes in interpretive rules, statements of general policy, and rules of agency procedure or practice, and to give notice of the final adoption of such changes at least 30 days before the changes become effective.

The Administration for Native Americans (ANA) published a Notice of Public Comment (NOPC) in the Federal Register on December 27, 2004 (69 FR 77251), on the proposed ANA policy and program clarifications, modifications, and activities for the FY 2005 Program Announcements. The NOPC closed January 25, 2005. ANA received two public comments: One submitted by an inter-tribal non-profit organization and one from a federally-recognized tribe. The comments in response to the notice have been considered and one has been accepted. The clarification will appear in the FY 2005 SEDS, Native Language and Environmental program announcements.
