Asset Management Fiduciary
Administration—Court Accounting,
Troy, MI; Notice of Negative
Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated June 6, 2008, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA), applicable to workers and former workers of the subject firm. The denial notice was signed on May 13, 2008 and published in the Federal Register on May 29, 2008 (73 FR 30978).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) if it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

The negative TAA determination issued by the Department for workers of JP Morgan Chase & Co., JP Morgan Asset Management, Fiduciary Administration—Court Accounting, Troy, Michigan was based on the finding that the worker group does not produce an article within the meaning of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

The petitioner states that employment at the subject firm was negatively impacted by a shift of job functions to India. The petitioner also states that regardless of whether the workers of the subject firm produce a product or provide services, they should be certified eligible for Trade Adjustment Assistance.

The investigation revealed that the workers of JP Morgan Chase & Co., JP Morgan Asset Management, Fiduciary Administration—Court Accounting, Troy, Michigan are engaged in preparing trust and account transaction histories, and asset inventory lists for various county courts and/or other clients. These functions, as described above, are
