

The Agencies, on August 30, 2012, proposed three rules that would amend this collection: Regulatory Capital Rules: Regulatory Capital, Implementation of Basel III, Minimum Regulatory Capital Ratios, Capital Adequacy, Transition Provisions, and Prompt Corrective Action (77 FR 52792); Regulatory Capital Rules: Standardized Approach for Risk-Weighted Assets; Market Discipline and Disclosure Requirements (77 FR 52888); and Regulatory Capital Rules: Advanced Approaches Risk-based Capital Rules; Market Risk Capital Rule (77 FR 52978). An information collection request to revise and rename the collection on the basis of the three rules was submitted to OMB for review in response to which OMB, on February 1, 2013, filed a comment, requesting that the Agencies resubmit their information collection requests when the proposed rules are finalized. Since the FDIC's collection expires on February 28, 2013, the FDIC is proceeding with the renewal process for the existing collection to ensure its continuation until such time as the proposed rules are finalized and the FDIC resubmits to OMB its request to revise the collection.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on: (a) whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.
